

BEYOND BASIC

Intensive Care Nephrology

Jointly developed by the BASIC collaboration (The Chinese University of Hong Kong) and the European Society of Intensive Care Medicine this course is designed to equip Trainees, Specialists and experienced Nurses and Educators working in Intensive Care with relevant skills and knowledge in critical care nephrology.

The 1.5-day course includes a pre and post MCQ test, comprehensive structured lectures, demonstrations, small group discussions and practical skill stations.

- AKI Epidemiology, definition, pathophysiology, therapy
- Acute kidney injury and sepsis
- Rhabdomyolysis
- AKI and abdominal compartment syndrome
- Urinary tract infections
- Continuous renal replacement therapy
- Chronic Renal Failure
- Intermittent haemodialysis and SLEDD
- Peritoneal dialysis
- Drug dosing in renal failure

Date: 26th & 27th November, 2015

Venue: ICET Level 3 West Block,
Nepean Hospital
Derby Street, Kingswood
NSW 2747

Course Convenor: Dr Nudrat Rashid

Registration Fee: $680 (including GST)

To Register and for more information:

Email: basic@niccer.org.au

Web: www.icetnepean.org