Intensive Care Medicine Registrars

- Applications open in New Zealand on 27 April and close at 5pm on 22 May 2015
- Opportunities all advertised on www.kiwihealthjobs.com/rmo

Call New Zealand home... Where you can be amongst friends and family; be in welcoming environments... Especially after a busy day. Call New Zealand home, where you can advance your career in a variety of Intensive Care Medicine departments and regions throughout the country. From Southland to Whangarei, twenty DHBs are accepting applications for the 2015/2016 training year. All DHBs and their regions have something to offer. While some offer regional rural experience, others are major tertiary teaching centres. Don't miss out on applying and being selected for the 2015/2016 training year. Get your application in from 28 April 2015.

The training programme

Each region in New Zealand has its own training programme and we would encourage you to seek information on each of these via the individual DHB websites. In addition, further information can be found on the College of Intensive Care Medicine of Australia and New Zealand website.

Start dates for 2015/2016 training year

We are looking for Registrars who can start in one of our hospitals on 14 December 2015.

Eligibility criteria

You need to be eligible for registration with the Medical Council of New Zealand. Check if you're eligible here.
